

Security Clearance Certificate

Screening for Unescorted Access of Personnel to Nuclear Power Plants Certification of continuous employment, reliability and trustworthiness of personnel

A security vetting according to the Swedish Protective Security Act is mandatory for all personnel at Ringhals AB, whom is responsible for, or involved in, security sensitive activities according to Swedish legislation. Säkerhetsskyddslag \(2018:585\) | Sveriges riksdag (only in Swedish, there is no English version).

Name of applicant	Date of birth (yymmdd)	Male Female
Address
Nationality	Passport number

The applicant has been continuously employed with: Company _____ since date _____. We have reviewed his personnel file again to confirm trustworthiness and reliability, The applicant has not exhibited any aberrant behaviour or character traits that might pose a threat to public health and safety or might bear on his ability to discharge his duties in a reasonable manner.

As to the statement of suitable enquiry, we wish to confirm that to the best of our knowledge, the applicant has not:

- Been tested positive for drugs or use of alcohol that resulted in on-duty impairment
- Been subject to a rehabilitation plan for treating substance abuse (except for self-referral)
- Been denied unescorted access or removed from any nuclear power plant in accordance with the fitness for duty policy
- Been removed from activities due to drugs or alcohol use

This clearance was based on satisfactory results of a background investigation which included checks of criminal records covering a minimum of the past five years and checks of other evidence that would threaten or reflect adversely upon that individual's trustworthiness and reliability.

The purpose with the security interview is to further establish a good personal knowledge and must always be performed as it is a legal requirement according to the Swedish Security Protection regulation.

Säkerhetsskyddsförordning \(2021:955\) | Sveriges riksdag (only in Swedish, there is no English version).

The security interview must contain questions, which could be considered sensitive for the candidate, about their financial status, international travels, addictions or previous use of drugs and/or alcohol, criminal history, potential conflicts of interest etc.
